

FIGHT FOR RACIAL JUSTICE

With Rev. Dr. Ray Hammond M.D., M.A.

and Rev. Mariama White-Hammond

Thursday, December 8, 7:00 p.m.

Temple Isaiah

55 Lincoln Street, Lexington

The quality of race relations in this country impacts-all of us. Together, let's learn how we can be part of the process that promotes social justice for everyone. Join our community conversation Thursday, December 8 at 7:00 p.m. at Temple Isaiah and grapple with the challenge of promoting positive race relations and a more fair justice system in Massachusetts and in our country. Come engage with our speakers Rev Ray Hammond and his daughter, Rev. Mariama White-Hammond, in the sacred and serious work of talking about race and moving to action.

Ray Hammond is the founder and pastor of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church (AME) in Boston. He is Chairman and Co-Founder of the Ten Point Coalition—an ecumenical group of Christian clergy and lay leaders working to mobilize the greater Boston community around issues affecting high-risk youth. He serves on the Executive Team of the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization and is an Executive Committee Member of the Black Ministerial Alliance. Rev. Hammond is the author of several papers and articles on a range of issues including diversity and violence prevention.

Mariama White-Hammond is a Minister at Bethel AME Church and a racial justice and climate justice activist. For 13 years Mariama served as the Executive Director of Project HIP-HOP (Highways Into the Past - History, Organizing and Power) a Boston youth social justice arts organization. Currently Mariama is a leader in the climate movement through the MA Interfaith Coalition for Climate Action, Green the Church, and other grassroots efforts to resist new fossil fuel infrastructure. For more than 20 years Mariama has given lectures and led workshops on issue of racism, white privilege and unconscious bias for schools, faith communities and nonprofit organizations.
