

Follen Community Church Brown Fund for Youth Social Justice Training
Application for Funding
Submit applications by email to BrownFund@Follen.org

Brown Fund applications will be considered on a rolling basis and evaluated based on: (1) social justice training program content, (2) answers to questions on the application form, (3) an interview, (4) extent of an applicant's involvement with Follen, (5) proposal to share the training experience with the congregation, (6) financial need of the applicant, (7) availability of funding from UUCSJ or other sources, (8) availability of money in the Brown Fund and other Brown Fund scholarship applications.

Applicant Information

Date of application:

Name:

Date of birth:

Mailing address:

Email:

Phone:

What is the best way for us to reach you?

Social Justice Training Program Information

Name of Program (include webpage link if available):

Sponsoring Organization:

Dates:

Location:

Description:

Cost:

Have you already applied for the program?

Have you been accepted to the program?

Did you apply for and/or receive financial assistance for the program? How much?

Amount you are requesting from the Brown Fund:

Please answer the following questions (your answers will be kept confidential by members of the Brown Fund Committee):

1. Why do you want to attend this social justice training program? What do you hope to learn?
2. How might you use or share what you learn at the program with Follen (for example, presentation to FUUY, Follen newsletter, speak in church, lead a discussion group, organize an action, etc...) Recipients will be required to share their experience with the congregation after completion of the program.
3. Describe your past and current involvement with Follen Community Church or other UU church(es) or fellowship(s) (for example, RE classes, choir, operetta, MSYG, Coming of Age, FUUY, attend services, etc...) Involvement will be considered as a factor in the selection of recipients.
4. Why are you applying for Brown Fund support for your participation in this program? (Describe your financial need or other reasons for seeking a scholarship from the Brown Fund.)